2011 Novice champion Darren Pypers wins the title by a healthy margin, Marcus Jaggard missed three rounds but still finished a good second with Chris Tesserass in third. It was good to see Kevin Miller back riding after being seriously ill. In 2013 the 50/50 and Inter` series will be combined to boost entries and will be renamed the Intermediate championship. Riders who normally enter 50/50 should enter as Inters` .
